READERS ARE NOT THE SAME.
LITERARY WORKS ARE NOT THE SAME.

All words are defined differently and creativity by the Author. Some authors write storylines, themes, and mysterious pathways. Others, simply remind us of life and how fortunate we are. They do this by providing us with simple, yet powerful sayings, affirmations, and significant observations from Life, itself.

Sometimes, while drinking that early morning cup of coffee or tea, we may pick up our mobile phone and scroll through Social Media. Or, we can pick up a book, and skim through Quotes. WE will then reach for a pen or a marker, and highlight the sayings that hit home for us.

We will then remember that God is yet good. All it takes is a simple quote.
